PRESIDENT PLANS A BUSY TWO DAYS

To Go to Camp David Today, to Meet With Cabinet and Security Council

Special to The New York Times.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Nov. 20

President Eisenhower spent a day of relaxation at his snow-covered Gettysburg farm today.

He did not go to church. The extent of his activity was an hour-long ride in a golfmobile around the grounds with his house guest, Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther. General Gruenther is Supreme Commander of North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces in Europe.

The quiet day was expected to prepare the chief executive for a busy two days. Tomorrow morning he will drive the 23 miles to Camp David in Maryland.

At 2:30 P. M. he will meet with the National Security Council. At 9 A. M. Tuesday the Cabinet will meet.

Members of the two groups who have not met with the President since he left Washington Aug. 14 for his Denver vacation will be brought to Camp David by helicopter from Washington. Some will stay overnight at the camp with the President. He will return to his farm after the Cabinet meeting.

General Gruenther, who arrived for the week-end Friday afternoon, left at 2 P. M. today for Harrisburg, Pa., to return by plane to his headquarters in France. The President's other house guests for the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. W. Alton Jones of New York City, who also left at 2 P. M., and William E. Robinson, president of the Coca Cola Company, who left late last night after the group had spent the evening playing bridge. Mr. Jones is president of Citic Service Corporation.

James C. Hagerty, Presidential press secretary, told reporters the President got more than eight hours sleep last night. He said that the President was "feeling fine."
